Arrest made in Home Invasion

Yorktown, December 29, 2005 – On September 15, 2005 a home invasion was reported in the 100 block of Skimino Road. A juvenile subject at the residence reported that there was a knock at the door and when opened, three white males forced their way into the residence. One of the males stated that there was something at the house that belonged to them. The victim said she was pushed to the floor while the suspects went through the house. The three males were reported to have left the house in a white F150 pick up truck. After investigating this case Sheriff's Investigators charged a 16 year old juvenile that reported the incident. She was charged with 18.2-460 Obstruction of Justice and 18.2-461 Filing a false police report. The petitions were served on this juvenile on 12/6/05. The Sheriff's Office does not release the names of juveniles charged with criminal offenses.
